(b) what amount is spent on individual convict, under-trial prisoner, on food and other items of necessity;

(c) whether open air prison theory is being followed, if so, the details thereof, State-wise; and

(d) what are the pros and cons of open air jails and impact on offenders ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED) : (a) and (b) 'Prisons' being a State subject, it is for the States to revise their respective Jail Manuals. A model prison manual was also circulated by the Central Government for adoption by the States. Similarly, the amount spent on convicts under various heads is as per their jail manuals.

(c) and (d) As per the information available, there are 22 open jails in the country as given in the Statement attached (See below). All the open air prisons are working satisfactorily and a good number of prisoners have been benefited by the theory of open air iails. Prisoners in general accept the scheme and are willing to be transferred to open prisons.
